Mr. Tiezheng Li, Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of FinVolution, commented, "In 2025, we proudly celebrated FinVolution's 18th anniversary, marking a milestone in our evolution from a passionate Chinese fintech pioneer to a regional platform expanding responsible credit access across Asia and beyond. Despite a challenging macro and regulatory environment in China, we delivered resilient full-year results, with Group revenue of RMB13.6 billion, up 3.8% year over year, and net profit rising 6.6% to RMB2.5 billion. Our effective 'Local Excellence, Global Outlook' strategy drove international revenue to a record 31.4% contribution in the fourth quarter, highlighted by full-year profitability in Indonesia and the Philippines.

"We also made a strategic entry into our first developed market, Australia, employing the regulatory maturity and consumer-first mindset we have developed in China alongside our successful experience scaling in Southeast Asia. Going forward, our resilient risk management, ongoing AI innovation investments, and responsible growth will ensure prudent management of our China business while continue to accelerate sustainable international expansion. As we build on our international momentum, we remain committed to delivering growth and enduring value for our users, partners, and shareholders through disciplined execution," concluded Mr. Li.

Mr. Jiayuan Xu, Chief Financial Officer of FinVolution, continued, "In the fourth quarter, we navigated a complex environment, prioritizing portfolio quality in China while sustaining strong growth internationally. Group net revenue was RMB3.0 billion and net income was RMB415.5 million, reflecting the near-term impact of tighter underwriting in China, offset by a 28.6% year-over-year increase in international revenues. We also recorded robust international transaction volume growth of 41.4% year over year to RMB4.1 billion and unique borrowers up 133.8% to 3.8 million, underscoring the resilience of our diversified model and our ability to adapt quickly in a dynamic landscape.

"Meanwhile, we continued to deliver meaningful shareholder returns, executing US$107.2 million in full-year buybacks, including a record US$40.7 million in the fourth quarter, and increasing our dividend per ADS by 10.5% to US$0.306, totaling approximately US$74.5 million for 2025. Our Chairman and senior management team recently invested an additional US$1.9 million of their own capital, reflecting strong internal confidence in our valuation and long-term prospects. We will continue to advance our strategy with a clear emphasis on execution quality and portfolio resilience, balancing growth and risk management to drive sustainable returns and value creation," concluded Mr. Xu.

Fourth Quarter 2025 Financial Results

Net revenue for the fourth quarter of 2025 was RMB3,023.9 million (US$432.4 million), compared with RMB3,456.7 million for the same period of 2024. This decrease was primarily due to decreases in loan facilitation service fees, post-facilitation service fees and guarantee income, partially offset by increases in net interest income and other revenue.

Loan facilitation service fees were RMB848.9 million (US$121.4 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB1,344.8 million for the same period of 2024. The decrease was primarily due to decreases in the transaction volume and average rate of transaction service fees in the China market, partially offset by the increase in transaction volume in international markets.

Post-facilitation service fees were RMB392.8 million (US$56.2 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB460.5 million for the same period of 2024. This decrease was primarily due to the rolling impact of deferred transaction fees.

Guarantee income was RMB948.5 million (US$135.6 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB1,205.5 million for the same period of 2024. This decrease was primarily due to the decrease in risk-bearing loans in the China market, as well as the rolling impact of deferred guarantee income. The fair value of quality assurance commitment upon loan origination is released as guarantee income systematically over the term of the loans subject to quality assurance commitment.

Net interest income was RMB471.9 million (US$67.5 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB217.9 million for the same period of 2024. This increase mainly resulted from the increase in the average outstanding loan balances of on-balance sheet loans in both China and the international markets, partially offset by the decrease in interest yield in the China market.

Other revenue was RMB361.8 million (US$51.7 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB228.0 million for the same period of 2024. This increase was primarily due to the increase in the contributions from other revenue streams including other value-added services.

Origination, servicing expenses and other costs of revenue were RMB847.3 million (US$121.2 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB664.0 million for the same period of 2024. This increase was primarily driven by the increase in employee expenditures and higher loan collection expenses in both China and the international markets.

Sales and marketing expenses were RMB512.4 million (US$73.3 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB531.5 million for the same period of 2024. This decrease was primarily due to improved efficiency and decreased investment in marketing activities in China.

Research and development expenses were RMB142.6 million (US$20.4 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB126.3 million for the same period of 2024. This increase was primarily due to increased investments in technology development.

General and administrative expenses were RMB124.5 million (US$17.8 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB112.6 million for the same period of 2024, primarily due to higher professional service fees in the international market.

Provision for accounts receivable and contract assets was RMB106.4 million (US$15.2 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB95.1 million for the same period of 2024. The increase was primarily due to increased transaction volume of off-balance sheet loans in the international market, partially offset by decrease in volume of off-balance sheet loans in the China market.

Provision for loans receivable was RMB261.7 million (US$37.4 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB64.3 million for the same period of 2024. This increase was primarily due to the increase in the outstanding loan balance of on-balance sheet loans in both China and the international markets.

Credit losses for quality assurance commitment were RMB546.4 million (US$78.1 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB1,075.0 million for the same period of 2024. The decrease was primarily due to the decrease in risk-bearing loans in the China market.

Operating profit was RMB482.7 million (US$69.0 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB787.9 million for the same period of 2024.

Non-GAAP adjusted operating income, which excludes share-based compensation expenses before tax, was RMB519.8 million (US$74.3 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB822.0 million for the same period of 2024.

Other income was RMB20.8 million (US$3.0 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB25.9 million for the same period of 2024. The decrease was mainly due to lower gains from a reduction in investment products.

Income tax expense was RMB87.9 million (US$12.6 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB133.1 million for the same period of 2024. This decrease was mainly due to the decrease in pre-tax profit.

Net profit was RMB415.5 million (US$59.4 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB680.8 million for the same period of 2024.

Net profit attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Company was RMB424.7 million (US$60.7 million) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB680.7 million for the same period of 2024.

Diluted net profit per ADS was RMB1.63 (US$0.23) and diluted net profit per share was RMB0.33 (US$0.05) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB2.61 and RMB0.52 for the same period of 2024, respectively.

Non-GAAP diluted net profit per ADS was RMB1.77 (US$0.25) and non-GAAP diluted net profit per share was RMB0.35 (US$0.05) for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with RMB2.74 and RMB0.55 for the same period of 2024, respectively. Each ADS represents five Class A ordinary shares of the Company.

As of December 31, 2025, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of RMB 4,285.1 million (US$612.8 million) and short-term investments, mainly in wealth management products and term deposits, of RMB3,015.2 million (US$431.2 million).

The following chart shows the historical cumulative 30-day plus past due delinquency rates by loan origination vintage for loan products facilitated through the Company's platform in China's Mainland as of December 31, 2025. Loans facilitated under the capital-light model, for which the Company does not bear principal risk, are excluded from the chart.

Fiscal Year 2025 Financial Results

Net revenue for 2025 was RMB13,569.5 million (US$ 1,940.4 million), compared with RMB13,065.8 million in 2024. This increase was primarily due to increases in loan facilitation service fees, net interest income and other revenue, partially offset by decreases in guarantee income and post-facilitation service fees.

Loan facilitation service fees were RMB5,176.5 million (US$740.2 million) for 2025, compared with RMB4,694.4 million in 2024. The increase was primarily due to increases in transaction volume and average rate of transaction service fees in the international markets, partially offset by the decreases in transaction volume and average rate of transaction service fees in the China market.

Post-facilitation service fees were RMB1,629.8 million (US$233.1 million) for 2025, compared with RMB1,740.2 million in 2024. This decrease was primarily due to the rolling impact of deferred transaction fees.

Guarantee income was RMB4,124.9 million (US$589.9 million) for 2025, compared with RMB5,085.3 million in 2024. This decrease was primarily due to the decrease in risk-bearing loans in the China market, partially offset by an increase in such loans in international markets, as well as the rolling impact of deferred guarantee income. The fair value of quality assurance commitment upon loan origination is released as guarantee income systematically over the term of the loans subject to quality assurance commitment.

Net interest income was RMB1,336.5 million (US$191.1 million) for 2025, compared with RMB853.8 million in 2024. This increase mainly resulted from the increase in the average outstanding loan balances of on-balance sheet loans in both China and the international markets.

Other revenue was RMB1,301.9 million (US$186.2 million) for 2025, compared with RMB692.1 million in 2024. This increase was primarily due to the increase in the contributions from other revenue streams including other value-added services.

Origination, servicing expenses and other costs of revenue were RMB2,900.1 million (US$414.7 million) for 2025, compared with RMB2,381.8 million in 2024. This increase was primarily driven by higher facilitation costs in both China and international markets.

Sales and marketing expenses were RMB2,200.5 million (US$314.7 million) for 2025, compared with RMB2,014.3 million in 2024 as a result of our more proactive customer acquisition efforts focusing on quality borrowers in both China and the international markets.

Research and development expenses were RMB536.6 million (US$76.7 million) for 2025, compared with RMB496.7 million in 2024. This increase was primarily due to increased investments in technology development.

General and administrative expenses were RMB442.1 million (US$63.2 million) for 2025, compared with RMB413.5 million in 2024, primarily due to increases in rents and renovation expenses, professional service fees and miscellaneous administrative expenses.

Provision for accounts receivable and contract assets was RMB426.0 million (US$60.9 million) for 2025, compared with RMB317.0 million in 2024. The increase was primarily due to increased transaction volume of off-balance sheet loans in the international market.

Provision for loans receivable was RMB637.7 million (US$91.2 million) for 2025, compared with RMB320.0 million in 2024. This increase was primarily due to the increase in the outstanding loan balance of on-balance sheet loans in both China and the international markets.

Credit losses for quality assurance commitment were RMB3,462.4 million (US$495.1 million) for 2025, compared with RMB4,587.3 million in 2024. The decrease was primarily due to the decrease in risk-bearing loans in the China market, partially offset by the increase in risk-bearing loans in the international markets.

Impairment of goodwill and intangible assets was RMB50.7 million (US$7.2 million) for 2025, compared with nil for the same period of 2024. The increase was primarily due to an impairment of goodwill related to a certain micro-lending company acquired by the Group in 2017, following a performance review during the year.

Operating profit was RMB2,913.3 million (US$416.6 million) for 2025, compared with RMB2,535.1 million in 2024.

Non-GAAP adjusted operating income, which excludes share-based compensation expenses before tax, was RMB3,062.3 million (US$437.9 million) for 2025, compared with RMB2,679.2 million in 2024.

Other income was RMB188.1 million (US$26.9 million) for 2025, compared with RMB310.1 million in 2024. The decrease was mainly due to lower gains from a reduction in investment products, reduced income from investments, and the reduction in government subsidies.

Income tax expense was RMB556.2 million (US$79.5 million) for 2025, compared with RMB457.4 million in 2024. This increase was mainly due to the increase in pre-tax profit and the increase in effective tax rate.

Net profit was RMB2,545.2 million (US$364.0 million) for 2025, compared with RMB2,387.8 million in 2024.

Net profit attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Company was RMB2,542.4 million (US$363.6 million) for 2025, compared with RMB2,383.1 million in 2024.

Shares Repurchase Update and Management Purchase

For the full year of 2025, the Company deployed approximately US$107.2 million to repurchase its own Class A ordinary shares in the form of ADSs. These repurchases included US$60.7 million worth of ADSs that were repurchased concurrently with the offering of convertible senior notes in June. As of December 31, 2025, in combination with the Company's historical and existing share repurchase programs, the Company had cumulatively repurchased its own Class A ordinary shares in the form of ADSs with a total aggregate value of approximately US$477.3 million since 2018.

In December 2025, Chairman of the Board Mr. Shaofeng Gu and other senior management of the Company, purchased in their personal capacity approximately 0.37 million of the Company's ADS, with a total aggregate value of approximately US$1.9 million, independently of the Company's share repurchase programs. The share purchases by senior management reflect strong conviction in the Company's resilient business model, solid fundamentals, and accelerating international expansion. We believe these strengths, supported by the current valuation, position the Company well to execute its "Local Excellence, Global Outlook" strategy and deliver sustainable value to all stakeholders.

Business Outlook

Through prudent navigation of a complex environment, the Company delivered solid results in 2025. As a result of the near-term uncertainties introduced by recent regulatory changes in China, the Company expects its full-year 2026 total revenue guidance to be in the range of approximately RMB11.5 billion to RMB12.9 billion, representing a year-over-year decline of approximately 5% to 15%.

The above forecast is based on the current market conditions and reflects the Company's current preliminary views and expectations on market and operational conditions and the regulatory and operating environment, as well as customers' and institutional partners' demands, all of which are subject to change.
